

pwd maharashtra red book pdf The Maharashtra police department has released a new manual on the use of force and related laws. The publication is titled 'Red Book: Maharashtra Police Manual of Instructions and Guidelines for the Use of Force and Related Laws'. This edition includes detailed guidelines for carrying out arrests, maintaining accounts octorleans, investigating deaths in custody, surveillance, carrying out searches etc. So now law enforcement agencies have a single reference point to help them understand how best to carry out their duties without any ambiguity or confusion. The first Red Book was published on December 15, 1998. It was revised in August 2010 on the basis of the first amendment to the Indian Police Act, 1861, which stated that all directions on use of force issued by the Centre were also applicable to state forces. The manual has been divided into three parts: Administration of Police Force, Code of Criminal Procedure and Maharashtra Police Acts & Rules. The manual contains special chapters for 'Battling Naxals' and 'Human Rights' too.
